BRAND NEW MONGOOSE LEGION RANGE FOR 2021

Posted in BMX, on 29th October 2020

MONGOOSE'S BESTSELLING SERIES IS BACK!

With the new year just around the corner, brands are starting to release their new models & collections and one which we've been particularly excited for is Mongoose's Legion 2021 Series.

Born out of South California, Mongoose have established themselves as a name that is synonymous with BMX. With almost 50 years experience, they certainly know how to build a Freestyle BMX Bike and their Legion Series is testament to this.

Core to their brand, the Legion Series is designed to cater for all ages and abilities of rider. Ranging from the entry model L10 up to the L100 which is suited to advanced riders, each model has its own dimensions and specifications, creating a collection which has something to offer for everyone. With Mongoose's industry-leading construction and unrivalled craftsmanship behind it, the Mongoose Legion 2021 Series is set to be a bestseller!

We've broken down the details of the top four models for you to take a look at:

MONGOOSE LEGION L40 2021 COMPLETE BMX

A versatile bike, designed with new riders in mind. Built with Hi-Ten steel frame, removable brake mounts and threadless sealed integrated headset, this has everything you need to start learning tricks down the skatepark or dirt jumps. We're particular fans of the L40's sick colourway too!

MONGOOSE LEGION L60 2021 COMPLETE BMX

With a 20.5" top tube length and 20" tires mounted on aluminium single wall 36H rims, the L60 is perfectly suited to the younger intermediate rider. Capable of handling either park, street or dirt environments, this is a bike that will handle whatever you have to throw at it!

MONGOOSE LEGION L80 2021 COMPLETE BMX

The L80 takes it up a notch. Designed for intermediate riders, the L80 is versatile enough to handle park, street and dirt situations thanks to its Mongoose Chromoly Main Triangle frame and Hi-Ten Steel Fork. What really sets this bike apart from the rest however is its Chromoly 8.75" 4-piece bars!

MONGOOSE LEGION L100 2021 COMPLETE BMX

The L100 is designed to be an all-encompassing freestyle BMX, offering everything a rider could need, from learning the basics to landing advanced aerial tricks! Featuring a 21" top tube and 8.75" rise bars, this model caters for the older rider. Available in both a sleek green colourway or a fresh white colourway, the L100 is sure to stand out anywhere.
