Some of the team have already made their way over to England ahead of the tour, Ryan Williams in competing at ScootFest over the coming weekend; he was given this year's wild card! The legend himself will then also be visiting our Halesowen store next Saturday (17th November) to do a special meet and greet – he just never stops. So be sure to come on down if you can! If you can't make it, we'll be doing a live Q&A with him that afternoon, so send us any questions you'd love to know the answer too.

The rest of the Nitro Circus crew and team will then join Ryan in Birmingham ready to start the UK tour. We can't wait to see what these guys bring, judging by the clips we've seen from the Canadian tour...it won't be anything short of action packed and very entertaining!

As the official sponsors of this tour, we'll also be joining the guys around the UK with our SkateHut Wheel Of Fortune, so come and visit us before, during or after the shows and have a spin to win! We've got some amazing prizes to give away including t-shirts, hats, stickers, vouchers and loads more goodies.
